

Stirling Homes Queensland THE MONTANA

If you need to make the most of 360 degree views then the gorgeous Montana is the home for you. With a generous, hardwood timber deck wrapping around the four sides of this home, you can make the most of each view in every direction. Inside this home there are eye catching features all around you, including the polished timber floors and amazing cathedral ceilings. The kitchen is open, fitting in with the feel of the rest of the home. The kitchen also allows you to take in the views through a pristine bay window. With all these fabulous features, the Montana radiates country charm.
