Stirling Homes Queensland THE DENVER

This well presented home is a perfect mix of country design with a modern twist. The open plan living incorporates beautiful cathedral ceilings, making this area appear open and spacious. The view from the kitchen is projected through a large bay window and the spacious front verandah creates an inviting entrance with the portico style roof. With plenty of verandah and alfresco areas, you can enjoy the view that much more.

The Denver is a house you can truly call a home.
